Title: MERGING OF SPRING AND WINTER

Date: 1930

Medium: Oil on canvas

Description: The image is dominated by darkly shadowed hills that loom large against a skyline heavy with storm clouds. At the base of the hills there is eroded ground that provides a pathway for a herd of cattle and three mounted figures. On the far right are the tops of a stand of trees. In the immediate foreground is a muddy river that runs horizontally across the entire canvas.

Dimensions: 101.6 x 127.3 cm (40 x 50 1/8") (Image) Frame: 118.7 x 144.5 cm (46 3/4 x 56 7/8")
