Title: NATURE'S FIRE

Date: No date

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@102a7

Medium: Oil on board

Description: The image is a landscape with one predominate tree to the right of center. The tree fills the major portion of the canvas; its limbs spread out beyond the top and right edges of the work. Patches of light blue sky appear through the tree's limbs. A small stream stretches from the lower right corner toward the left edge of the painting and then begins to curve back toward the right of the painting. There is a tall, leafy tree in the background at the left edge of the painting. The landscape is painted in shades of orange, gray, brown, and purple.
