Medium: Oil on board

Description: This painting is a landscape. In the foreground of the image is a blue body of water. In the right foreground just in front of the water is a tree. In the midground center behind the water is a small structure, with a tall yellow-leafed deciduous tree directly to the right of it. To the right and slightly behind the yellow-leafed tree is a tall green tree which reaches all the way to the top of the work. Smaller foliage is in front of it. The reflection of the structure and trees are visible in the clear blue water. Leading into the background is a yellow field which meets a line of trees. Rising above it all in the background is a large mountain, blue sky with puffy white clouds visible above it.
