Medium: Oil on masonite

Description: An oil painting of a large stone building and a smaller structure surrounded by deciduous trees. The stone building is two stories with two windows visible on the top floor and a door and window on the main floor, the building dominates two thirds of the image starting on the left side. Attached to the stone building is a smaller pale blue wooden structure which has one wooden door on the left and a window to the right. Trees surround both structures with one in the lower left corner and more in the upper right corner. The trees are full of autumn colors and the ground is covered in yellow and orange leaves. There are few green shrubs on the base of the stone building. Bright blue sky can be seen in the upper right corner of the image.
