Title: THE FIRST VISION

Date: 1934

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@10c49

Medium: Oil on canvas
