Title: LIFT UP THINE EYES

Date: c.1965

Primary Maker: com.gallerysystems.emuseum.core.entities.RecordXPerson@107ed

Medium: Oil on board
